

Programme structure of Master in International Relations

The programme is a two-year, 120 ECTS full-time study consisting of a basis of 40 ECTS in mandatory courses, 30 ECTS for the master's thesis and 50 ECTS for elective courses, internship and/or exchange studies. Students can also take a 60 ECTS master's thesis and no elective courses in Year 2.

M-IR study structure
Semester 1	August Block	EDS203 Introduction to International Relations (5 ECTS)
	Autumn Parallel	EDS374A International Relations Theory (10 ECTS)	EDS312 Research Methods (0 ECTS – credits awarded in spring)	Elective course
Semester 2	Spring Parallel	EDS374B International Relations Theory (10 ECTS)	EDS312 Research methods (15 ECTS)	Elective course
Semester 3	Autumn Parallel	Elective course	Elective course	Elective course
Semester 4	Spring Parallel	M30-IR Master thesis

Students make their individual study plans including mandatory and elective courses.

The program comprises five mandatory courses:

- EDS203 Introduction to International Relations \(5ECTS\)
- EDS374A International Relations Theory \(10 ECTS\)
- EDS312 Research Methods \(15 ECTS\)
- EDS374B International Relations Theory \(10 ECTS\)
- M30-IR Master Thesis \(30 ECTS\)

In addition, they can choose from among the following IR elective courses:

- EDS379 Global Political Economy \(10 ECTS, yearly autumn\)
- EDS381 Feminist and Critical IR \(10 ECTS, bi-annually even years autumn\)*
- EDS380 International Organizations \(10 ECTS, bi-annually odd years spring\)*

- EDS378 State Building and Conflict in Fragile States (10 ECTS, bi-annually odd years spring)*
- EDS376 Religion, Politics and Islam (10 ECTS, bi-annually even years spring)*
- EDS333 Washington Environmental Workshop (10 ECTS, in June block)
- EDS372 Security Studies (10 ECTS, bi-annually odd years autumn)*
- EDS383 Global Transitions and the City (10 ECTS, bi-annually odd years autumn)*
- EDS391 Understanding Post-Conflict Police and Security Reform (10 ECTS, bi-annually even years spring)
- EDS313 Internship (10, 20 or 30 ECTS, offered in spring or autumn)

Students are free to choose elective courses from the other master's degree programmes at Noragric (or NMBU). Some relevant electives are:

- EDS285 Global Food Systems and Security (10 ECTS, autumn)
- EDS230 Global Development and Aid (10 ECTS, autumn)
- EDS355 Climate Change and Society (10 ECTS, autumn)
- EDS351 Ecological Economics and Degrowth (10 ECTS, autumn)
- EDS330 Political Ecology (10 ECTS, spring)
- EDS348 Global Environmental Governance (10 ECTS, spring)
- EDS349 Energy and Society (5 ECTS, January block)*
- EDS370 Gender and Development (5 ECTS, August block)
- EDS341 Decolonial Theory (5 ECTS, January block)*

Course offered biennially, either in even or odd years. Check course frequency in the course description.*

Course offered infrequently. Check course frequency in the course description.*

Students can go on exchange to one of our partner universities and take courses there in the third semester. Some possible exchange destinations for M-IR students:

- Aberystwyth University, the United Kingdom
- American University, School of International Service, Washington D.C., USA
- University of Groningen, the Netherlands
- Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium
- Science Po, Lille, France
- Turkish National Pole Academy \(TNPA\), Turkey
- University of Erfurt, Germany