

Equine orthopedic days:
Feeding for health and performance
April 26th-27th 2025

Saturday April 26th

08:30-08:55	Registration
08:55-09:00	Welcome and information, Anne S. Kallerud
09:00-09:45	Basics of equine nutrition, Ingrid Vervuert
10:00-10:45	Reading and understanding a forage/feed report, Idun Rosenfeld
11:00-11:45	Special considerations for Norway - forage & soil, Idun Rosenfeld
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:45	Feeding trotters for racing performance and health, Malin Connysson
14:00-14:45	Feeding the horse with gastric ulcers, Louise Husted Larsen
15:00-15:45	Qualitative evaluation of forage and feed ( practical in the equine clinic ) - all
16:00-17:00	Optional: Guided tour of the NMBU Equine teaching hospital
18:30	Dinner (separate registration)

Sunday April 27th

09:00-10:00	Feeding the fat pony, Ingrid Vervuert / MalinConnysson
10:15-10:45	Ongoing research at NMBU: EMS, polyneuropathy ("silosyke")
11:00-11:45	Feeding the geriatric horse, Ingrid Vervuert
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:45	Feeding the growing horse, feeding the pregnant and lactating mare, Idun Rosenfeld
14:00-14:45	Feeding horses performing high intensity exercise, Malin Connysson
15:00-15:15	Help, my horse is injured - how do I feed it during rehab? Ingrid Vervuert
15:15-15:45	Case presentations – how to make an individual feeding plan, Malin Connysson, Ingrid Vervuert and Idun Rosenfeld
15:45-16:00	Last questions & summary